

Privacy Statement

Upon registering for services provided by LIMSC, the LIMSC Organising Committee and the M.F.L.S.-board reserve the right to provide the organising committee with a list of participants. This list will include the names of participants, the number of tickets purchased, and any additional information required for the relevant activity. Such additional information will only be requested where it is necessary for the organisation of the activity. Examples include details of dietary requirements or allergies for dinners and identification details for international travel. The LIMSC Organising Committee and the M.F.L.S.-board will ensure that no unnecessary personal data is requested.

When registering as a participant your personal data will be processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy. Access to this database is restricted to the LIMSC Organising Committee and the M.F.L.S.-board. It is maintained for the purpose of contacting former participants. If you wish to have your personal data removed from this database, you may submit such a request to the LIMSC Organising Committee.

LIMSC does not share your personal data with third parties.

The LIMSC Organising Committee takes the security of your personal data very seriously and will implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to prevent unauthorised access, misuse, loss, or disclosure of your data. For example, all personal data are processed within the secure Genkgo environment. The Organising Committee will also ensure that your personal data are not disclosed without authorisation, lost, or accessed by unauthorised persons. If you believe that your personal data is not adequately protected or that it is being misused, you are encouraged to contact the LIMSC Organising Committee.

Photographs

Photographs may be taken during the conference. This may be during the Scientific and Social programme. These photographs may be published on the LIMSC website and social media channels. If you wish to request the removal of a photograph from the website or social media, you may contact the LIMSC Organising Committee.
